Key Resources for Faculty to Support Students

Academic Integrity

All members of our community share responsibility for actively fostering academic honesty, actively discouraging academic dishonesty, and engaging in ongoing discussion of activities that may violate the spirit of honesty. The Academic Integrity Policy defines University expectations. Click here to make a report.

Note: Law School honor code process differs

Code of Conduct

The Student Code of Conduct defines the expectations for students and lists all conduct violations. Please make a referral to the Office of Student Support if you observe, or are notified, of any behavior that may be a violation of the Code of Conduct. You can also refer to the Faculty Toolkit for Managing Disruptive Conduct. Click here to make a report.

Compass Case Management/SAP

If there is a concern regarding a student, you can submit a Compass referral form to connect them with the Clinical Case Manager in the Office of Student Support. Students may also access the Student Assistance Program (SAP) 24/7 at 1.800.327.2251. The SAP can provide students with short-term counseling, referrals, and other resources. Click here to make a report.

COVID 19

The University will be operating remotely for the fall 2020 semester in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Information and updates regarding UB’s response to COVID-19 can be accessed here. In addition, a list of COVID-19 student resources is linked at the end of this document.

Disability and Access Services

The office of Disability and Access Services helps to provide reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities. If you have questions regarding classroom accommodations, you may contact DAS at das@ubalt.edu.

Student Emergency Assistance Fund

The Student Emergency Assistance Fund was developed to support University of Baltimore students who are experiencing an exceptional financial crisis that may prevent them from being successful or making academic progress. We encourage you to direct students who may be in need of this assistance to the Office of Student Support webpage for additional information and to complete an application.
Title IX
The University of Baltimore is committed to providing a working and learning environment safe from Sexual Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, and Retaliation. The Sexual Harassment and Other Sexual Misconduct Policy applies to all members of the University community, including students, faculty, and staff. Incidents should be reported as soon as possible so that the matter can be addressed appropriately. Questions or concerns regarding the policy should be directed to a member of the Title IX team. You can reach the Title IX Team at T9@ubalt.edu.
