The CICL Fellows is being split into I and II fellows. LAW 522 will become CICL STUD FELLOWS I.

Title Change: CICL STUD FELLOWS I
Long Description: Center for International and Comparative Law Student Fellows Program I

Credit Change: 3 credits per semester

Course Description Change: (Replace current with below)
This course will provide students with in-depth experience of the practice and policies of international and comparative law.

In addition to the weekly seminar meeting, students will take an active role in the research, writing and public projects of the Center for International and Comparative Law. The research and writing will involve weekly meetings with the CICL Director or Senior Fellow and will consider fundamental issues in international and comparative law. Particular subject-matter areas will depend on the nature of the CICL activities at any given time, but will include issues such as human rights, democracy, intellectual property, and international business transactions.

Students will also participate in the publication, advocacy, and law-reform efforts of the CICL and work on the Center’s public projects, including those pursued in cooperation with sister institutions overseas and with domestic NGO partners working in the field of international law.

Limited enrollment by permission of instructor
