SHORT DESCRIPTION OF PROPOSAL (state action item 1-23 and course name & number or program affected):
Change in program requirement – addition of writing requirement
PROPOSED SEMESTER OF IMPLEMENTATION: Fall <input type="checkbox"/> Spring <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Year: 2010

O-1: Briefly describe what is being requested:
The addition of CRJU 501 ("Professional Skills in Criminal Justice" – see separate new course proposal for description) to the MSCJ program requirements to help to strengthen students' critical thinking and writing and oral communication skills needed to successfully complete the degree requirements; however, students who are admitted to the MSCJ program with a GPA above a 3.3 are exempt from taking this course. Students who do not qualify for this exemption must complete the course in their first semester of the program, and students will be evaluated on a pass/fail basis, and for this specific course, a 'passing' grade requires the student to earn a B or better.
For new courses or changes in existing courses (needed by Registrar)

NEW Title:	Course # / HEGIS Code:	Credits:

O-2: Set forth the rationale for the proposal:
Presently, the only admission standard to the MSCJ program is based upon a student's undergraduate GPA. We recognize however that GPAs are not a perfect measure of a student's ability to succeed in graduate school. Two of the most important skills our graduate students need to successfully complete all of the degree requirements are to be able to critically evaluate information and to articulate their position in a clear and concise manner. Therefore we would like to add an additional program requirement for students accepted into the MSCJ Program. We would like all students admitted to MSCJ program with a GPA of 3.3 or below to complete CRJU 501 to help develop their critical thinking (e.g., ability to correctly interpret and summarize research findings) and technical writing skills. Students would be graded on a pass/fail basis in the course, however, to earn a passing grade, the student must earn a grade of B or better.

Impact Statement From the Office of University Relations

These changes could potentially affect the undergraduate and graduate catalogs—which the Office of University Relations currently manages and produces—as well as other recruitment publications that contain this type of specific academic material. The timing of the final approval for these changes will be a determining factor in our ability to incorporate the new information in a timely fashion in any related materials that are on our production schedule.
