2.7: Change in course title and description for FIN 715 Security Analysis UB/Towson MBA
PROPOSED SEMESTER OF IMPLEMENTATION:	Fall <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Spring <input type="checkbox"/>	Year: 2009

O-1: Briefly describe what is being requested:

Change in course title and description for FIN 715New Title: *Security AnalysisNew Description:

This course considers the valuation of financial instruments such as equity, fixed income securities, options and futures. Valuation is the key link and builds on the concepts and techniques of present value learned previously in Finance 640.

Prerequisite: FIN 640 (No Change)

For new courses or changes in existing courses (needed by Registrar)

OLD Title: Investment Analysis	Course # / HEGIS Code: FIN 715	Credits: 3
NEW Title: Security Analysis	Course # / HEGIS Code: FIN 715	Credits: 3

O-2: Set forth the rationale for the proposal:

Updating and revision based on review of course and program content by the MSB finance faculty to support reinstatement of MS Business in Finance program.

The faculty has updated the Finance Program to include professional technology and financial data to allow students to make decisions in corporate, security, and real estate environments.

While the school does not have a dedicated Capital Markets Room at present, we are looking forward to building such a room in the future. Meantime, technology in the MSB will be used.

Beginning in Spring 2009, Investment classes will use The FTS Real Time Trader System developed by Carnegie Mellon University. FTS allows students to trade with each other, to manage portfolios using live data from financial markets, to create customizable trading room displays, and to create extensive research capabilities. Since it was developed by a University, the system includes cases, lessons, and a vast array of examples. FTS will be used in all investment courses and appropriate corporate finance courses.
