

The Reverse Transfer program allows qualified students to earn an associate degree while working toward their bachelor's degree at the University of Baltimore. If a student is in good academic standing at both UB and the community college (2.0 GPA), and they have completed 15 credits at the community college, they can transfer courses completed at UB back to the previously attended Maryland public community college, for evaluation toward the associate degree. If approved, the associate degree will be conferred by the community college.

The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education. In accordance with FERPA, it is the policy of UB and the community college to withhold certain educational records unless the student provides consent to disclose information. The purpose of this form is to provide the consent to UB and the community college required by FERPA.

I, the undersigned, hereby understand and authorize UB and the community college to release, discuss educational records and information and agree to my student records being shared between UB and the community college for the purposes of credit evaluation to award a degree, diploma or certificate, if I am eligible to graduate. I also understand that the awarding of an Associate's Degree beyond initial matriculation at UB does not alter the general education requirement status determined at initial admission to UB. The release does not permit the disclosure of these records to any other person or entities without my written consent or as permitted by law. This release form is effective from the date of signature below and consent remains in effect until receipt of written revocation.
