

To consider a renewal appeal of your dependency status, the Office of Financial Aid must have documented proof of the continuation of an extenuating circumstance that prevents you from obtaining parental data for the FAFSA form. The following information is required to document such a situation.

A. STUDENT INFORMATION

_____ Last Name First Name M.I., Student ID Number (begins with 1 or 3)

_____ Email Address Telephone Number Date of Birth

B. APPEAL CONTENTS

- Your completed and signed 2022–2023 FAFSA
- A typed and signed one-page explanation of your current circumstance. Provide any update of the following:
 - Your relationship with your biological and/or legally adoptive parents: include their first and last names and when you last spoke with each parent
 - Specific dates of events cited in your statement
 - Where you currently live
 - How you are continuing to support yourself while living apart from your parents
- Copy of your 2020 tax transcript or use of the IRS Data Retrieval Tool on your FAFSA
- All 2020 W-2 forms

Please note: Students approved for a dependency override must request a review of their dependency status each year until the student is automatically considered independent by federal criteria.
