KNOWLEDGE ON YOUR OWN TERMS

The University of Baltimore will work with you as you determine your personal and professional path. At UB, you’ll live and learn on your own terms. Your experiences outside of the classroom combined with the real-world knowledge you can access through our expert faculty will fuel your success through graduation and beyond.

LEARN IN AND BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

LEARNING COMMUNITIES

As a freshman, you’ll get to know your classmates and teachers as part of a Learning Community, a series of thematically linked courses. Interdisciplinary and interactive in nature, courses may include discussions, excursions, group work, hands-on learning or all of the above. Recent themes have included superheroes, social networking and crime dramas.

Learning Community: “Know Your Bay”
Courses: Urban Solutions, First-Year Seminar, Great Issues in History
Activities: helped to clean up the Jones Falls waterway and learned on the Lady Maryland, a 104-foot schooner/floating classroom

20% of class time is dedicated to engagement with the Baltimore community.

YOUR MASTER PLAN
UB’s First-Year Seminar: Applied Learning and Study Skills will provide you with a toolkit applicable for years to come. Not only will you develop skills to use in the classroom, you’ll also build a four-year college plan and start working on a portfolio that could help launch your career.

HONORS PROGRAM
UB’s Helen P. Denit Honors Program gives you a chance to enrich your education through enhanced honors courses. You might visit Washington, D.C., or New York City; develop a marketing plan for a client; conduct original research; or attend arts events. Honors students have access to exclusive workshops, events and trips as well as their own private lounge, kitchen and computer lab.

Program Requirements
• 3.5 GPA upon admission (you’ll be enrolled automatically)
• maintenance of a 3.3 GPA at UB
• 15 UB honors credits

Don’t meet the requirements yet? Apply after achieving a 3.5 GPA at UB.

Community outreach
Honors students have connected with the following organizations (and more) through service learning, co-curricular and volunteer activities:
• Baltimore Animal Rescue and Care Shelters
• Blue Water Baltimore
• Future Harvest—Chesapeake Alliance for Sustainable Agriculture
• Habitat for Humanity of the Chesapeake
• Maryland Food Bank
• Southeast Community Development Corp.

INTERNSHIPS
Get a jump on your post-UB career by getting professional experience through an internship. With major corporations, numerous local companies, large health care organizations and a wide variety of nonprofits, Baltimore is the perfect place to find a position in your field of interest. UB’s Career and Professional Development Center offers a comprehensive online database, UWorks, to assist you in finding internship opportunities that match your interests.

Top five employers posting internships in UWorks:
• U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission
• Baltimore Collegetown Network
• CareFirst BlueCross BlueShield
• The Borgen Project
• Maryland Zoo in Baltimore

FUNDING YOUR EDUCATION
UB is committed to helping you afford your education. Some form of financial aid, including scholarships and work-study, is awarded to 84 percent of new students. We’re here to help you navigate the financial aid process.

FRESHMAN MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS
Incoming freshmen are automatically considered for up to $7,000 in annual scholarships—as much as $28,000 over four years of enrollment.

WORK-STUDY
Students who demonstrate financial need can gain valuable work experience with a work-study position. Funds from your aid package will be set aside for you to earn as you work. Sample positions include:
• student ambassador
• graphic designer
• marketing specialist.

FINISH4FREE
If you enter UB as a first-time degree-seeker and finish your degree within four years, your final semester of tuition will be free!

COMMUNITY OUTREACH
Prospective students who apply as freshmen can expect one of three decisions contingent upon past achievement and potential for future success:

FULL ADMISSION
Be admitted as a freshman and start right away at UB.

Summer Achievement Institute
Take refresher courses in math, writing and reading over the summer. If you pass the free, four-week program, you can enroll as a freshman that fall.

FRESHMAN TRANSITION PROGRAM
Take classes taught by Community College of Baltimore County faculty on UB’s campus. After you complete the two- to three-semester program, you’ll be admitted to UB as a transfer freshman, bringing with you all your transferable credits.

PATHWAYS TO GRADUATE STUDY
We can help you accomplish your goals faster with our accelerated bachelor’s to master’s degree programs. For selected programs, you can pay undergraduate tuition rates for up to 9 graduate credits later in your undergraduate career that can be applied to both degrees, saving you approximately a semester of time and money in graduate school.
