“You build on the strengths of what people have done before you. And you pay tribute to people along the way.”

— H. Mebane Turner
WAYS TO GIVE:

There are several ways in which you can have a significant impact on the UB of tomorrow. Many planned gifts offer advantages that benefit your and your family’s overall financial goals while helping UB with its long-term financial plans. In addition to outright, tax-deductible cash gifts, other creative ways to give include:

- gifts of stock or other assets
- a beneficiary designation on a life insurance policy, 401(k) plan or IRA
- a bequest in your will
- a life income gift such as a charitable gift annuity or a charitable remainder trust
- a charitable lead trust.

TURNER SOCIETY MEMBER BENEFITS:

As a member of the Turner Society, you will enjoy:

- invitations to attend special events and seminars
- recognition in the University of Baltimore Foundation annual report and in various newsletters (We respect the wishes of those who choose to give anonymously.)
- a special membership certificate.

I have included the University of Baltimore in my estate plans. Please enroll me in the Turner Society.

You’re invited …

to join the Turner Society at the University of Baltimore. Named in honor of President Emeritus H. Mebane Turner, the Turner Society is a program designed to build long-range financial stability for the University of Baltimore, an institution committed to providing the next generation of leaders with a high-quality, innovative education. Become a member of the Turner Society today by remembering UB in your estate plans and making an invaluable commitment to the future success of UB and of its students.

H. Mebane Turner served as president of the University of Baltimore from 1969-2002, the longest tenure of any UB president.
