University of Baltimore Foundation

Annual Report FY2008

MISSION

The University of Baltimore provides innovative education in law, business and the applied liberal arts to serve the needs of a diverse population. A public university, the University of Baltimore offers excellent teaching and a supportive community for undergraduate, graduate and professional students in an environment distinguished by academic research and public service. The University:

- makes excellence accessible to traditional and nontraditional students motivated by professional advancement and civic awareness;
- establishes a foundation for lifelong learning, personal development and social responsibility;
- combines theory and practice to create meaningful, real-world solutions to 21st-century urban challenges; and
- is an integral partner in the culture, commerce and future of Baltimore and the region.

INSTITUTIONAL VISION

The University has become and will continue to be a living learning laboratory at the center of the Baltimore renaissance. Neither a traditional research nor comprehensive educational institution, the University will balance the seemingly contradictory: access and excellence, teaching and research, the one and the many. Through this creative tension, the University will develop cutting-edge solutions and new possibilities by relating theory to practice and understanding to experience. The University's degree programs and continuing professional education will help students, faculty and staff understand the past, assess the present and shape the future. By blending the perspectives of law, liberal arts and business, the University community will create and transmit intelligent and practical solutions to challenging issues regionally, nationally and internationally.

The following narrative reflects accomplishments and program development toward each tenet of the University's mission.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Alumni and Friends,

The University of Baltimore continues to grow and our work over the past five years is increasingly being recognized and rewarded.

Last year, UB achieved the largest annual percentage enrollment increase in the University System of Maryland at 9.44 percent—the most substantial growth in the University's history as a state institution. We also began the planning stages of the largest expansion project in UB's history with the John and Frances Angelos Law Center. In addition, the University of Baltimore Foundation's fundraising total of more than $10 million broke the institutional record by almost 50 percent and more than tripled the previous year's amount.

These achievements are a testament to the work, commitment and spirit of all UB community members. On behalf of the students, faculty and staff at the University of Baltimore I want to thank each of you who generously supported the University in fiscal year 2008.

Thank you again for all that you do for the University of Baltimore. I hope that you share our sense of accomplishment as you read about some of the developments taking place on our campus in the following pages.

I look forward to the coming year as we build on our successes, meet our challenges and write the next chapter of the UB story.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Bogomolny
President

MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD CHAIR

Dear Alumni and Friends,

We are truly excited about the energy and enthusiasm that is present at the University of Baltimore. As you will see in the following pages, there are many exciting things happening at UB and I am honored to serve as the Chair of the University of Baltimore Foundation at this point in our history.

I am also extremely happy about the overwhelming support we received from so many of our alumni and friends in FY 2008. As a result of the efforts of many individuals, more than $10 million was contributed or pledged in support of the University of Baltimore and its programs.

I want you to know that your generosity directly impacts the lives of our students and faculty. Your support allows UB to provide increased scholarship aid, make improvements throughout our campus and expand faculty and staff development.

On behalf of the University of Baltimore Foundation Board, I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to everyone who supported UB this year- and ask that in this difficult time you continue to support the activities of UB - a growing and dynamic university.

Sincerely,

Vernon H.C. Wright

CREATIVE WRITING & PUBLISHING ARTS PROGRAM NAMED AMONG NATION'S BEST

Poets & Writers magazine, the country's foremost journal for both new and established writers, named the University of Baltimore's M.F.A. in Creative Writing & Publishing Arts as one of the nine most distinctive programs in the United States in its November/December 2007 issue. The article detailed UB's program, which is housed within the School of Communications Design, alongside descriptions of some of the nation's most respected master's-level specializations in writing.

HISTORIC CONFERENCE EXAMINES 1968 BALTIMORE RIOTS

This year marked the 40th anniversary of Martin Luther King's death and the devastating series of civil disturbances that followed throughout the city of Baltimore. In April 2008, the University of Baltimore offered a close-up examination of the riots—their causes in addition to the short- and long-term consequences—in a series of public events called "Baltimore '68: Riots and Rebirth." The highlight of the symposium was a conference exploring the effects of the riots and the many efforts at civic healing that followed. This national gathering of experts included scholars across disciplines as varied as race relations, civic engagement and 20th-century history and took place on the UB campus 40 years after the disturbances rocked the city.

JOHN AND FRANCES ANGELOS LAW CENTER RECEIVES RECORD-SETTING GIFT

Fiscal year 2008 marked the largest private donation ever received by the University of Baltimore in the form of a $5 million gift from renowned attorney Peter Angelos, LL.B. '61. This dollar-for-dollar matching pledge will support the construction of a $107 million law facility at North Charles Street and Mount Royal Avenue.

The new John and Frances Angelos Law Center represents one of the largest expansion projects in UB's history. This signature, 190,000-square-foot building will provide a strong foundation for those activities that are central to the School of Law's goals of community involvement, public interest and diversity. Construction is slated to begin in 2010, and the facility is scheduled to open in fall 2012.

In support of this project, the Abell Foundation funded a $150,000 design competition that attracted some of the world's leading architectural firms. We expect that the new law center will be a transformative building for the UB campus and an architectural landmark for the city of Baltimore.

UB'S SCHAEFER CENTER MANAGES HARRY AND JEANETTE WEINBERG FELLOWS PROGRAM

After a rigorous selection process that involved a dozen Baltimore-area colleges and universities, The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation selected the University of Baltimore's Schaefer Center for Public Policy to manage The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Fellows Program in FY 2008. The program's goal is to enhance the management of community-based nonprofit agencies, thereby improving their ability to assist those in need of their services.

The 2008 class of Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Fellows—a select group of executive directors of community-based nonprofit agencies serving disadvantaged individuals—embarked on a yearlong professional development program designed to enhance leadership skills and promote collaboration among the region's nonprofits. The program also included a series of retreats facilitated by University of Baltimore faculty and staff.

THE FRANCE MERRICK CHALLENGE DRAWS TO A SUCCESSFUL CLOSE

As a result of the France-Merrick Foundation issuing a $500,000 challenge grant to UB's Merrick School of Business, the subsequent France Merrick Challenge raised more than $1 million to strengthen teaching and learning opportunities within the business school. The original grant and its matching funds have enabled UB to enhance students' educational experiences significantly within the William H. Thumel Business Center, the home of the Merrick School of Business.

Among the renovations completed to date are a number of physical improvements to classrooms, including an increase in the facility's technological capabilities. New wireless devices accommodate the burgeoning number of students using laptop computers in their day-to-day education, and learning spaces have been right-sized to maximize their effectiveness.

TRUANCY COURT PROGRAM CONTINUES TO TACKLE CRISIS IN CITY SCHOOLS

The Truancy Court Program, developed by the University of Baltimore School of Law's Center for Families, Children and the Courts, continues to flourish and has made significant strides toward addressing the truancy crisis in Baltimore City schools. Developed in 2005, the program brings together judges, counselors and education specialists with truant students, service providers, their parents, teachers and principals in an enhanced effort to improve overall school attendance.

A partnership between the Baltimore City Public School System, the Office of the Mayor of Baltimore City and the Circuit Court and District Court for Baltimore City, this initiative has succeeded with the support of the Charles Crane Family Foundation and the Maryland Administrative Office of the Courts.

UB FURTHER ENHANCES FACULTY ROSTER

UB welcomed 17 new faculty members to campus this year, representing an annual growth of more than 10 percent. The University places a high priority on making quality appointments to both meet instructional needs and bring new ideas, perspectives and intellectual energy to campus.

YALE GORDON COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS COLVIN SCHOLARSHIP FUND ESTABLISHED

Karen Colvin

Karen Colvin's involvement with the University of Baltimore spans over 25 years. She's been a student, a professor, a member of the Yale Gordon College of Liberal Arts (YGCLA) Dean's Advisory Council, and now a donor. This past year, she established the Colvin Scholarship Fund to reward the dedication of senior-level YGCLA undergraduate students and help them complete their academic pursuits.

Karen's story is one marked by dedication, tragedy and determination. She originally came to UB in 1980, planning on earning her undergraduate degree. Her life changed course in December 1982, however, when she was involved in a near fatal automobile accident.

For the next 10 years, Karen devoted her efforts to advocating for the needs of the physically challenged. A return to college didn't enter into her plans. But one of her UB professors, Nijole Benokraitis, thought otherwise. Professor Benokraitis' persistent encouragement caused Karen to change her mind, and she returned to UB's campus in 1993. Karen graduated in May 1995, receiving the Sociology Student of the Year Award and the President's Award for Academic Excellence and Service. Ten days after delivering the address at her commencement, Karen started graduate school.

Karen and professor Benokraitis remained friends, so it wasn't much of a surprise when the professor asked Karen to substitute teach for her in 1995. After Benokraitis retired, Karen even took over some of her mentor's courses. Karen has remained an adjunct professor here at UB since then, often teaching as many as five classes per semester.

Karen created the Yale Gordon College of Liberal Arts Colvin Scholarship Fund in 2008. "As a faculty member, I am seeing students who work all day then go home to take care of children before coming to class. They're tired, but they are diligent and motivated to do the best they can. There had to be a way to reward them."

The Colvin Scholarship Fund is designed to provide scholarship assistance for YGCLA students who exhibit academic excellence and demonstrate financial need. As an endowed fund, it will continue to generate earnings to support future scholarships. "My own obstacles almost pale when I see what some of my students have to go through to get their education," Karen says. "I look forward to being able to increase my endowment through additional gifts in the future to assist them."

IMPORTANCE OF UBF ENDOWED FUNDS

The endowment funds held by the University of Baltimore Foundation are a trust given us by donors who recognize the importance of providing perpetual support for scholarships, professorships and special projects. Endowments help UB students realize their dreams of higher education and professional growth. They allow faculty to explore new ideas and incorporate best practices into their lesson plans. They ensure that the campus is technologically up-to-date. They assist in the growth of special programs developed to inspire students and provide outreach to the greater Baltimore community.

Endowments are a vital component of UB's long-term financial plan. Many of these are named funds, established with significant donor gifts. Others honor a respected member of the UB community, and are the result of many gifts of varying sizes. All of UBF's endowments are a lasting legacy that will help UB, its students and its faculty for generations to come.

Michele Gilligan

GEORGE AND CAROL McGOWAN FACULTY DEVELOPMENT FUND

Professor Michele Gilligan joined the UB School of Law Faculty in 1976 and has since then shaped the professional careers of thousands of law school students. Among them was Carol McGowan, J.D. '87. "I was not a typical student," Carol recalls. "I didn't start law school until I was 41 years old, and I never expected to practice law." Yet she found that UB had a very supportive learning environment, and she has remained actively involved in the School of Law and the University of Baltimore Foundation over the years. Her husband, George, a retired chairman and CEO of the Baltimore Gas and Electric Company, was the 2001 UB graduation speaker and the recipient of an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from UB. Mr. McGowan is also a former chair of the Board of Regents for the University System of Maryland.

In 1998, the McGowans together established an endowed fund – the George and Carol McGowan Faculty Development Fund – for UB's School of Law. "We wanted to do something that would grow over time, and that would support an area of the law school that was often overlooked," explains Carol. They decided upon a faculty development fund, which could be used by the Dean of the School of Law to meet a variety of needs. In 2008, income from the George and Carol McGowan Faculty Development Fund provided the funding for the School of Law's Award for Outstanding Teaching by a full-time Law Faculty Member. The recipient of this award was Professor Gilligan.

"Being recognized for the most important part of my job is wonderful. I love teaching and opening student eyes to all the possibilities that exist in the law. It is especially gratifying to know the award is supported by a former student who wanted to recognize and reward teaching excellence," says Gilligan.

Carol McGowan was thrilled to learn that Professor Gilligan would benefit from their endowment fund, and she is pleased that she and her husband can give back to UB in such a meaningful way. "I have degrees from two other schools, but I feel most loyal and most connected to UB," she admits. Through her generous gift of both talent and treasure, the McGowans' endowment fund will continue to support faculty members in the School of Law in perpetuity.

DIANA C. HOOPER MOSER SCHOLARSHIP FUND COMBINES CURRENT SUPPORT WITH ENDOWMENT

Rita Delp

Nancy Stevens

Dave and Wilma Hooper feel that giving back to others is an important part of life. In 2005, the Bel Air couple gave something very important to the UB community when they established the Diana C. Hooper Moser Scholarship to honor their daughter, Diana, a UB graduate. "Diana blessed us by working very hard from the time she started school until she graduated from the University of Baltimore," says Dave Hooper. Diana was, in fact, a scholarship recipient while at UB, and graduated summa cum laude from the Merrick School of Business in 1999.

The Hooper family established the need-based undergraduate scholarship fund at UB to assist other students after receiving an inheritance from Dave's father, a local businessman. Diana, now an accountant for the District Court of Maryland for Harford County, remembers her UB days with fondness. "I was very happy with my choice of UB. My classes were fairly small and my professors were very interested in helping us." The scholarship help she received while at UB was important to her and her family. "I remember how grateful I was that my mother and father didn't have to put me through college," Diana says. "It's wonderful that my parents are giving other students that opportunity."

Because the Hoopers wanted to be able to start giving out scholarship awards to current students, they have also made a commitment of an annual gift that is given out in its entirety to two worthy students each year until the endowment grows to a point where its income can support the awards in perpetuity. In this way, the family can make an immediate positive difference for UB students.

For the 2007-2008 academic year, Rita Delp and Nancy Stevens – both undergraduate students in the Merrick School of Business – were Diana C. Hooper Moser Scholarship recipients. Rita says, "My scholarship was a great help. I know that so many students don't stay in school because of the cost." When Nancy heard the news, she was overjoyed. "It was truly a blessing," she says. "Education has always been very important to me."

Education is obviously important to Dave and Wilma Hooper, as well, who now touch the lives of UB's undergraduate business students in a meaningful way each year. "I wanted to do something that would be pleasing to my father and to the Lord," Dave says. "The educational opportunities that UB provided for Diana were a good foundation for life. We wanted to help other hard-working young folk get an education, too."
