

Rules of the Recreation Center & Membership Agreement

All members of the University of Baltimore Recreation Center agree to the following:

1. Recreation Center membership is on an individual basis. Only current and valid University of Baltimore staff/student/faculty and Recreation Center members may use the Recreation Center facility. All members must present valid UB ID upon arrival at the front desk. Individuals using the facility without checking will be escorted out of the Recreation Center.
2. Recreation Center hours are posted and subject to change without notice. Patrons of the Recreation Center must vacate the premises by closing time. Members in the Recreation Center after closing will be considered trespassers and are subject to membership termination without refund.
3. No person under the age of 18 is permitted in the Recreation Center. The only exceptions are the University of Baltimore students and events approved by the Director.
4. Stairwell 1 and the elevator are the main entrances into the Recreation Center. All other access points should be used in the event of a fire or other emergency. Any one violating the policy will be escorted out of the facility.
5. Campus Recreation and Wellness is not responsible for lost or stolen articles. Participants are encouraged to secure all personal belongings and store them in the lockers. Day locks and semester locks are available at the front desk. Items found unattended should be returned to the front desk.
6. Equipment and supplies in the Recreation Center are property of the University and should not be misused, abused or removed from the Recreation Center. Any damaged equipment returned or not returned by closing time is the responsibility of the member who checked it out.
7. Guest passes can be obtained from the front desk. Guests must be accompanied by a member with a valid University of Baltimore ID. A maximum of 2 (two) guests per member is allowed. Guests must agree to and follow all Campus Recreation and Wellness rules and policies. Payment for guest passes must be made upon entry.
8. If you have a request to change any audio/visual settings on the televisions and radios, please notify CRW staff at the front desk.
9. Towels are given out at the front desk for your convenience. Please return towels after the completion of the workout.
10. Appropriate athletic attire, such as T-shirts, shorts, warm-up suits, sweat suits or aerobic clothing, is required at all times when using CRW facilities. Please see dress codes for specific areas in the Recreation Center.
11. Specific room policies are posted in each room. Members agree to abide by all such policies.
12. Only Recreation Center locks are allowed on long term lockers and members are allowed one long term locker. Tall lockers are for day-use only. Any locks that are left on lockers will be cut and the contents will be saved for two weeks, at which time they will be donated.
13. No food or drink is allowed in the Recreation Center. Water in resealable plastic containers is acceptable. Glass containers are not allowed in the Recreation Center.
14. Facilities may not be used for private instructions or to provide service without written permission from CRW.
15. The use of photographic equipment is prohibited, including cell phones with cameras.
16. The Recreation Center has a zero tolerance policy for harassment. Verbal or gestured profanity, provocation, pestering, and fighting are not tolerated in the Recreation Center. Such behavior will result in ejection from the Recreation Center for the day.
17. The University of Baltimore Code of Conduct has outlined policies that University of Baltimore students/staff/faculty and public members have to abide by or will be adjudicated either by the Dean of Students or by a hearing board.
18. Violation of any Recreation Center policy may result in suspension, expulsion, and/or termination of membership without refund. The Director makes all final decisions regarding suspension, expulsion, and/or termination of memberships.
19. Components of this agreement are subject to change at any time. Notice will be posted in common areas and on the website, www.ubalt.edu/campusrec if any changes occur.
