Topic: Skills for Multi-state Performance Test
Course Description: This upper-level course is to assist students in further developing the fundamental writing and analysis skills necessary for success on the bar exam and as lawyers. Using the Multistate Performance Test, students will hone their critical reading and legal analysis skills and will also further develop their ability to organize and manage a research and writing task. Students will deconstruct statutes and common law rules into elements, summarize and synthesize case law, and identify legally relevant facts from a case file to arrive at a sound legal conclusion. Pre-requisite: First year day courses.

This seminar will be conducted entirely online via Zoom Meeting software. This will be a live, interactive class, and you will be required to attend class in accordance with the law school's standard attendance policies. Attendance in class means that you will be available during the entirety of class and will appear onscreen with other class attendees. This is not a recorded lecture that you can watch on your own time. Required equipment includes: a computer with a strong internet connection (wired is better than WiFi), web browser, microphone, webcam, and speakers or headphones. While Zoom Meeting can be used on a phone or tablet, to fully participate in the course you should sign into the class with a computer. If you have questions about how to use Zoom, it is your responsibility to contact the University's Center for Excellence in Learning, Teaching and Technology (CELTT) in advance. They are available via phone at 410.837.5417 or via email at csi@ubalt.edu. If you do not have a webcam with a microphone, you should purchase one (cost is approximately $40-$50) or borrow one from room 002 in the University's Business Center. Before your first class, you will receive an email with a calendar invite that will contain a link to class's online session each week and information regarding how join the class. Participation in this class will be capped at 12 students. If there is more demand for this class than the law school can accommodate, priority for the online section will be given to evening students or students whose externship
