

VII-5.2 Advising - UB

Full-time faculty members of departments/divisions offering a major or specialization are expected to share in advising those students. The assignment of advisees to individual faculty members shall be done by the department chair or the specialization advisor. All other advising is performed by full-time staff who report to the dean in the Gordon College of Liberal Arts or the undergraduate and graduate program directors in the Merrick School of Business