

SENIOR CITIZEN TUITION WAIVER PROGRAM

Eligibility

To receive a Senior Citizen Tuition Waiver, an applicant must be:

- At least 60 years of age (proof required)
- A legal resident of the state of Maryland (one-year minimum residency required)
- Not engaged in gainful employment for more than 20 hours per week
- One whose chief income is derived from retirement benefits (proof required)

Documentation Required

- "Senior Citizen Tuition Waiver Program" form submitted each term enrolled at UB
- Copy of Maryland Driver's License or Maryland Identification Card submitted with waiver form
- Proof of receiving retirement benefits or Social Security benefits submitted with waiver form

Important Information

- Qualified senior citizens, after being admitted through the Office of Admissions, may enroll in classes on a space available basis. Senior citizens enrolled in the University of Baltimore will receive waivers of tuition (but not fees) for no more than 9 credits undergraduate and/or graduate per term. Senior citizens at the University of Baltimore will be afforded educational services available to regularly enrolled students without regard to whether the courses are taken on a credit or non-credit basis.
- Benefits to qualified senior citizens at University of Maryland System institutions shall include, subject to certain conditions, waiver of tuition (but not fees) for undergraduate and graduate courses, use of the libraries, and admission to all non-ticketed public lectures and performances. Discount tickets (subject to restrictions) for events sponsored by the Student Activities Office, and eligibility to join (for a fee) the UB Recreation Center are offered.
