

Rights of the Respondent in the Student Conduct Process

1. The right to be notified of the charge(s) brought against them.

2. The right to share their understanding of the situation and present relevant information and documentation for consideration in accordance with established procedures before a final decision is rendered.

3. The right to bring one person for support to a Conduct Proceeding.

4. The right to review relevant information that has been presented for consideration in the Adjudication Process in accordance with established procedures.

5. The right to have the decision made using a preponderance of the evidence standard.

6. The right to be informed in writing of the outcome of an adjudication decision.

7. The right to appeal the outcome in accordance with the established procedures for appeal.

8. The right to be informed in writing of the outcome following an appeal.