Key Resources for Faculty to Support Students

Academic Integrity
All members of our community share responsibility for actively fostering academic honesty, discouraging academic dishonesty, and engaging in ongoing discussion of activities that may violate the spirit of honesty. The Academic Integrity Policy defines University expectations. Click here to make a report.

Note: The School of Law honor code differs

Student Code of Conduct
The Student Code of Conduct defines the expectations for students and lists all conduct violations. Please make a referral to the Office of Student Support if you observe, or are notified of, any behavior that may be a violation of the Code of Conduct. You can also refer to the Faculty Toolkit for Managing Disruptive Conduct. Click here to make a report.

Compass Case Management/Student Assistance Program
If there is a concern regarding a student, you can submit a Compass referral form to connect them with the Clinical Case Manager in the Office of Student Support. Students may also access the Student Assistance Program (SAP) 24/7 at 1.800.327.2251. The SAP can provide students with short-term counseling, referrals, and other resources. A direct link to the SAP portal has also been added to the tool section of the MyUB Portal. Click here to make a Compass Case Management report.

COVID-19
The College of Public Affairs, Merrick School of Business, Yale Gordon College of Arts and Sciences, and University administrative and student support units, will reopen in a gradual manner (e.g., a mix of online and face-to-face classes and student services). The UBalt community can expect activities and operations during the fall semester to reflect this phased approach. The School of Law will return to its normal offerings of in-person classes and fully staffed offices, clinics, etc.

If you have questions about UBalt programs, resources or processes related to COVID-19, please visit Covid-19 Response and Planning Page or contact:

For Employees: employeehealth@ubalt.edu
For Students: studenthealth@ubalt.edu

Disability and Access Services
The Office of Disability and Access Services (DAS) helps to provide reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities. If you have questions regarding classroom accommodations, you may contact DAS at das@ubalt.edu.
Early Alert
The UBalt Early Alert is an online support network that allows faculty to submit comments or concerns about student academic performance to academic advisors electronically.

Student Emergency Assistance Fund & UB Cares Grants
The Student Emergency Assistance Fund was developed to support University of Baltimore students who are experiencing an exceptional financial crisis that may prevent them from being successful or making academic progress. The UB CARES Grant is provided by the U.S. Department of Education (ED) to support students who have been negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic. This funding is available through the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund authorized by the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act. We encourage you to direct students who may need this assistance to the Office of Student Support webpage for additional information.

Title IX
The University of Baltimore is committed to providing a working and learning environment safe from sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, and retaliation. The Sexual Harassment and Other Sexual Misconduct Policy applies to all members of the University community, including students, faculty, and staff. Incidents should be reported as soon as possible so they can be addressed appropriately. Questions or concerns regarding the policy should be directed to a member of the Title IX team. You can reach the Title IX Team at T9@ubalt.edu.
