Individuals Qualified and Interested in Teaching the Course
Professor Fred Brown, University of Baltimore School of Law (full-time faculty)
Hadrian Hatfield

Hadrian N. Hatfield, Shareholder (Family Law; AAML; IAML), Shulman Rogers Gandal Pordy & Ecker, P.A., represents clients who want creative, informed, and thoughtful solutions to complex family law problems. His in-depth knowledge and extensive experience range from cases with high-stakes and strong emotions to interstate and international situations. Mr. Hatfield is fluent in French and has worked on international law issues at the U.S. Department of State. Local and overseas clients often consult him on international family law matters such as:

- International Pre-Nuptial Agreements;
- Divorce litigation in two countries at the same time;
- Foreign located marital assets;
- International alimony and child support issues; and
- Custody and visitation rights in international relocation or parental child abduction situations.

He is hands-on involved in crafting settlements, trying cases, and arguing appeals in the courts of Maryland and the District of Columbia. His ability and effectiveness have been recognized by an AV rating from Martindale Hubbell, Fellowships in the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers (AAML) and in the International Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers (IAML), and repeated inclusion among the top family law practitioners by Washingtonian Magazine, Super Lawyers and Best Lawyers.

Mr. Hatfield represents many clients who are in mediation and is himself an accomplished mediator. He has made private mediation part of his practice for over fifteen years, including mediation of international divorce and Hague Convention issues. Mr. Hatfield participated in the pilot ABA International Family Mediation training in 2013. He is also a member of the Maryland Program for Mediator Excellence (MPME), the Maryland Council for Dispute Resolution (MCDR), and a founding member of the Collaborative Divorce Association, Inc. in Montgomery County, Maryland.

Mr. Hatfield has written articles for publication on a variety of family law topics, including international aspects of divorce. He also regularly teaches continuing legal education on a variety of topics to a national audience of family law attorneys and for the Maryland State, District of Columbia, and Montgomery County Bar Associations.

Glenn Cooper

Glenn M. Cooper is the chair and senior member of Paley Rothman's Litigation and Family Law practices. He frequently appears before federal and state courts at both the trial and appellate levels and before arbitration panels and professional disciplinary boards. The majority of his practice is devoted to complex business, financial, commercial, and domestic litigation involving significant business issues. Mr. Cooper's cases have helped shape the current state of the law in a number of areas. He is among a select group of active lawyers who have briefed and argued multiple civil cases in Maryland’s Court of Appeals. He also has earned the respect of his colleagues, having represented lawyers and law firms in Montgomery County.
Mr. Cooper frequently lectures before legal and professional associations and has authored significant articles on business issues. He was named the 2014 “DC Family Law Lawyer of the Year” by Best Lawyers in America. He has been recognized as one of the top attorneys in Maryland and Washington DC by Super Lawyers and has been among “Maryland Top 10” (2015), the “Maryland Top 100” (2012 – 2015), “Maryland Top 50” (2009 – 2011; this list no longer exists) and “DC Top 100” (2008 – 2014). He has been chosen as one of the top family law attorneys by Washingtonian Magazine on each of the occasions when selections were made and for the past six years has been recognized as a “Top Divorce Attorney” by the magazine. He is included in “Best Lawyers in America (2006-2016),” “Maryland Super Lawyers (2007-2015),” “Washington DC Super Lawyers (2007-2015) and “Who’s Who in American Law.” His closing argument in St. Luke Evangelical Lutheran Church v. Smith (cited below) was included as an example of eloquence in Stein, Closing Arguments, §403.50.

Committed to serving the legal community, Mr. Cooper is past President of both the Montgomery County, Maryland Bar Foundation and the Bar Association of Montgomery County (BAMC). He previously was a member of the BAMC’s Executive Committee and has served as a member of the Bar Foundation’s Executive Committee for more than 10 years. Mr. Cooper is a past Treasurer of both organizations and was a member of long standing and then Chair of the Maryland State Bar Association Committee on Ethics. He was the ABA Delegate from Montgomery County and the Chair of the Local Pro Bono Committee for Montgomery County, Maryland.

Mr. Cooper is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and a Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. He is admitted to practice before a variety of federal and state courts, including the U.S. Supreme Court. He is a member of the American Bar Association, the Maryland State Bar Association, the District of Columbia Bar Association, and the Bar Association of Montgomery County, Maryland. He is also a Fellow of the Maryland State Bar Association, a Bar Leader of the Montgomery County Bar Association, and a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation.

He received his J.D. from the University of Maryland Francis King Carey School of Law, where he was a member of the Law Review and the Order of the Coif and received the Simon E. Sobeloff Prize for distinction in Constitutional Law.
