Navigate to the Financial Information page using the Next buttons. Select Already Completed from the drop down box. Click on the Link to IRS button.

The screenshot shows the 'Student Financial Information' page. At the top, there are navigation tabs: 'Student Demographics', 'School Selection', 'Dependency Status', 'Parent Demographics', and 'Financial Information'. A red arrow points to the 'Financial Information' tab. Below the tabs, a blue header reads 'Student Financial Information'. A green box contains a checkmark and the text 'Application was successfully saved.' Below this, a question asks 'For 2012, have you completed your IRS income tax return or another tax return?' with a dropdown menu set to 'Already completed'. A red arrow points to this dropdown. Below the question, there are three radio button questions: 'Did you file an amended tax return?', 'Did you file a Puerto Rican or foreign tax return?', and 'Did you file your taxes electronically in the last 3 weeks (or by mail in the last 8 weeks)?'. At the bottom, a text box says 'Based on your response, we recommend that you transfer your information from the IRS into this FAFSA.' and a blue button labeled 'LINK TO IRS' is visible. A red arrow points to this button.

The next page will inform you that you'll be temporarily leaving the FAFSA on the web and are being transferred to the IRS website. Click OK to continue.

8

Ensure that the information on file with the IRS is correct. Click Submit to continue.

What is your (the student's) PIN?

A Federal Student Aid PIN is a 4-digit numeric code or 8-digit alphabetic code that is uniquely assigned to an individual to access Federal Student Aid Web sites.

The application process is faster if you use your PIN to sign your application electronically. Both you and your parent (if you are dependent) can apply for and use your individual PINs as electronic signatures.

If you do not have a PIN, you may apply for a PIN by clicking here to apply for a PIN
