

Jane Doe

Baltimore, MD

janedoe@ubalt.edu/ XXX XXX-XXXX

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

High-performing, detail-oriented forensic science student seeking opportunities with a background in laboratory research. Possesses experience with DNA extraction, analyzing data, cell culturing, and gene sequencing.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science, Forensic Science
University of Baltimore, Baltimore, MD

May 2019

Bachelor of Science, Biology
Salisbury University, Salisbury, MD
Dean's List (Spring 2013; Spring 2015)

Dec 2016

RELEVANT COURSEWORK

- Microscopy
- Trace Evidence
- Forensic Serology
- Arson Investigation
- Forensic Serology
- Laboratory Safety and Quality Assurance
- Physics 1
- Genetic Analysis
- Innovative Investigative Techniques
- Microbiology
- Handwriting Analysis

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant, Salisbury University
Salisbury, MD

Apr 2014- Dec 2014

- Assisted in field collection and data entry of reptiles and amphibians
- Caught live animals, photographed, recorded location and date for future herpetology research
- Coordinated with 2-3 other research assistants
- Researched and documented different animals that were native to US into Excel spreadsheet

ADDITIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE

Food Service Worker, Maryland Zoo of Baltimore
Baltimore, MD

Sep 2017- Present

- Greet customers
- Sell food and drinks to customers
- Prepare necessary food for shift

Ticket Agent, Spirit of Baltimore
Baltimore, MD

Mar 2017- Aug 2017

- Greeted and provided knowledgeable information on cruises offered to guests and potential customers
- Worked with team of three other ticket agents
- MVP for the month of June

Jun 2017

INVOLVEMENT

Member: Student United Way- Community Service Organization
Member: Forensic Science Society, University of Baltimore

Jan 2016- May 2016

Sep 2017- Present