JOIN THE SCHOOL OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE FACULTY ON A TREK ACROSS POLAND

The capital city of Warsaw was built on hard work and self-reliance. Decimated during World War II, the grand city was painstakingly restored to today's busy metropolis, complete with both skyscrapers and richly detailed palaces, gardens, parks, and beaches. The thriving capital is full of theaters, museums, and cafés, and noted for its buzzing nightlife – no wonder it's the fasting growing city in Central Europe. Krakow the former capital of Poland has always been famous for its beauty, charm and culture. Krakow is unique in its beauty; unlike most Polish cities, Krakow's structures survived WWII virtually undamaged. In addition to these cities, many are also visiting Poland to visit the well-known concentration camp of Auschwitz.
