

UNIVERSITY OF BALTIMORE SCHOOL OF LAW HONOR BOARD COMPLAINT FORM

Students at the University of Baltimore School of Law must exhibit high standards of academic and professional responsibility. The Honor Board is a group of students and faculty members who work to promote professionalism at the School of Law. The Honor Board educates the Law School community about the principles of the Honor Code and implements the Honor Code procedures when violations are alleged. Please use this form to submit a complaint about a possible Honor Code violation. You may submit this form to a member of the Honor Board or to a member of the law school administration.

Information about person making complaint

Name: _____	Email Address: _____
We need your contact information because we may need to contact you in connection with any investigation related to this issue.	Phone Number: _____

Name of accused student (or description if you do not know the student's name)

Setting of incident (please include name of class, room number, date, time of day, etc)

Please describe in detail the incident you wish to report as a possible violation of the Honor Code. Feel free to attach additional pages or supporting documents

Signature _____ Date: _____

Received by

Honor Board or Administration Date Rec'd _____

--