

SPECIAL REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

First Year Day Students

Full Time Day

---

Students in the day division will be automatically registered for their spring courses. Students will be enrolled into Civil Procedure II (3 credits), Contracts II (3 credits), Property (4 credits) and Constitutional Law I (4 credits). Students will also be assigned to Introduction to Advocacy sections (2 credits). Students may not choose or request a specific section group. Students will be able to view their schedule on the student portal on Thursday, October 24, 2024.

Part Time Day Options

---

Part-time day students will be enrolled in four courses during their second semester – Civil Procedure (3 credits), Contracts II (3 credits), Introduction to Advocacy (2 credits), and either Constitutional Law I (4 credits) or Property (4 credits). Students will be automatically enrolled into Constitutional Law I, but may contact an advisor to swap to Property. Students must complete their first year requirements the following semester the course is offered. All first year part-time day students are required to take 12 credits in the spring semester unless they receive specific permission to take fewer credits. Students will be able to view their schedule on the student portal on Thursday, October 24, 2024.

---

First Year Evening Students

First year students in the evening division will be automatically registered for their spring courses. Contracts II (3 credits), Torts (4 credits), and Introduction to Advocacy (2 credits). Students will be able to view their schedule on the student portal on Thursday, October 24, 2024.

---

Second Year Evening Students

Students in the second year evening division are able to complete Property, Constitutional Law II, Evidence and another choice; Professional Responsibility is recommended. At the conclusion of the term, these students will have completed all courses in the first year JD curriculum. Students will only be auto-enrolled into Property, which is the final first year course requirement.