Alumni Testimonials

Victoria Dimoff

M.S. Applied Psychology, Industrial and Organizational Psychology concentration

After returning home in 2020 from working in Australia, Victoria began her master's program in Industrial/Organizational Psychology at The University of Baltimore. Since then, Victoria has had the great experience of working with the Career and Internship Center as the Graduate Assistant for Employer Relations. Through this position, and through her education, she has been able to secure a role as a People Operations Coordinator for a data analytics company upon graduation. She is passionate about understanding how people operate within organizations, and ensuring that employees are motivated and satisfied with their job experiences.

Brittany Martin

M.S. Applied Psychology, Counseling concentration

I used UBworks towards the end of my master's program. I never used career services in my previous institutions. However, I wanted to make sure my resume was equipped for desired jobs as I was heading towards graduation. I made a couple of resume critique appointments with my career coach, Daniel Bowley. Each appointment, I was given a thorough analysis of my resume and tips to enhance my chances to securing a job. He also made talking about jobs "fun." With this help, I was able to advance in many facets. For example, I was able to be promoted at my current employment. I also gained admission to a doctoral program I am currently in process of finishing. Having someone like Daniel and CIC on my professional journey is a true asset to success.

Ayanna Roberts

B.A. Digital Communications

I am incredibly grateful for the support and guidance provided by the Career and Internship Center. Thanks to their resources and personalized assistance, I feel confident and well-prepared as I pursue my aspirations. During my meetings, I never felt like I was less of a person or unemployable because I was not "job-ready" yet. Every critique came across as a suggestion with an explanation. Never did I ever feel like my critiques to help me grow were harsh, offensive, or abrasive. Without the CIC office, I would not feel as comfortable sending my resume and portfolio out. Today, I stand confident in knowing that the CIC has been and always will be there to help guide me on my path.

Career Readiness Competencies

The National Association of Colleges and Employers, through a task force of college career services and HR/staffing professionals, has developed a definition based on extensive research among employers, and has identified eight competencies associated with career readiness.

CAREER & SELF-DEVELOPMENT

Proactively develop oneself and one's career through continual personal and professional learning, awareness of one's strengths and weaknesses, navigation of career opportunities, and networking to build relationships within and without one's organization.

Example behaviors:

- Show an awareness of own strengths and areas for development while pursuing and applying feedback.
- Develop plans and goals for one's future career, including seeking out opportunities to learn
- Assume duties or positions that will help one progress professionally, and network with others who can help one professionally.

COMMUNICATION

Clearly and effectively exchange information, ideas, facts, and perspectives with persons inside and outside of an organization.

Example behaviors:

- Understand the importance of and demonstrate verbal, written, and non-verbal/body language, abilities, including active listening, persuasion, and influencing skills.
- Communicate in a clear and organized manner so that others can effectively understand, including asking appropriate questions
- Frame communication with respect to diversity of learning styles, varied individual communication abilities, and cultural differences.

CRITICAL THINKING

Identify and respond to needs based upon an understanding of situational context and logical analysis of relevant information.

Example behaviors:

- Make decisions and solve problems using sound, inclusive reasoning and judgment.
- Gather and analyze information from a diverse set of sources and individuals to fully understand a problem, and accurately summarize and interpret that data.
- Proactively anticipate needs and prioritize action steps, effectively communicating actions and rationale.

EQUITY & INCLUSION

Demonstrate the awareness, attitude, knowledge, and skills required to equitably engage and include people from different local and global cultures. Engage in anti-racist practices that actively challenge the systems, structures, and policies of racism.

Example behaviors:

- Solicit and use feedback from multiple cultural perspectives to make inclusive and equity-minded decisions.
- Actively contribute to inclusive and equitable practices that influence individual and systemic change, including advocacy for inclusion, equitable practices, etc.
- Keep an open mind to diverse ideas and new ways of thinking.

LEADERSHIP

Recognize and capitalize on personal and team strengths to achieve organizational goals.

Example behaviors:

- Inspire, persuade, and motivate self and others under a shared vision, including building shared trust and approaching tasks with a positive attitude.
- Use innovative thinking and feedback from others to go beyond traditional methods.
- Plan, initiate, manage, complete and evaluate projects.

PROFESSIONALISM

Knowing work environments differ greatly, understand and demonstrate effective work habits, and act in the interest of the larger community and workplace.

Example behaviors:

- Act equitably with integrity and accountability to self, others, and the organization.
- Maintain a positive personal brand in alignment with organization and personal career values.
- Demonstrate dependability (e.g., report consistently for work or meetings, being present and prepared).
- Show a high level of dedication toward doing a good job, including having an attention to detail.

TEAMWORK

Build and maintain collaborative relationships to work effectively toward common goals, while appreciating diverse viewpoints and shared responsibilities.

Example behaviors:

- Employ personal strengths, knowledge, and talents to complement those of others.
- Exercise the ability to compromise and be agile, including collaboration with others.
- Build strong, positive working relationships with supervisor and team members/coworkers.

TECHNOLOGY

Understand and leverage technologies ethically to enhance efficiencies, complete tasks, and accomplish goals.

Example behaviors:

- Navigate change and be open to learning new technologies to improve efficiency and productivity of one's work.
- Identify appropriate technology for completing specific tasks.
- Manipulate information, construct ideas, and use technology to achieve strategic goals.

SEARCHING FOR A JOB OR INTERNSHIP?

OFF-CAMPUS JOBS

The Job Location and Development Program (JLD) allows students to expand their professional experience through nonprofit internship opportunities. Students eligible for federal work-study (financial aid) can work for a nonprofit organization off campus and still redeem their federal work-study funds. In doing so, students are able to be paid while gaining real-time, hands-on experience in a field that promotes their personal career growth.

Log in to UBworks to schedule an appointment with our program coordinator.

Benefits of the JLD Program

- Offers for-credit and/or paid internships and jobs
- Positions that are near campus—convenient for you and your classes
- Allows you to gain experience in your field
- Earns you $15/hour for up to 19.5 hours/week
- Be eligible to receive the University System of Maryland (USM) Professionalism Badge, which can be used on resumes and LinkedIn

ON-CAMPUS JOBS

Searching for a student employment position at UBalt is made simple with UBworks. UBworks is a job and internship search engine provided by the Career and Internship Center that allows students to search and apply for jobs and internships on and off-campus, update their resume and set appointments with their career coach.

The on-campus positions posted in UBworks include graduate assistantships, student assistants and internships.

To apply to federal work-study positions, you must be a U.S. citizen, complete your FAFSA and be registered for classes.

Questions about federal work-study? Contact the Office of Financial Aid at federalworkstudy@ubalt.edu

Are you an international student?

Many on-campus jobs require work study eligibility. As a reminder, students with F1 visas are not eligible for federal work study. However, international undergraduate and graduate students with F1 visas are eligible for Student Assistant positions. These on-campus jobs do not require federal work study eligibility.

Graduate international students may also apply for Graduate Assistant (GA) positions, which offer tuition remission and a yearly stipend.

If you have questions about employment as an international student, please contact the Career and Internship Center or the Office of Diversity and International Services.

GAIN EXPERIENCE

No matter which phase of the UBalt Career Cycle you are in, gaining experience is crucial. While you are a student at UBalt, you should set a goal to gain experience through at least two or three of these methods.

[] Attend professional association meetings & conferences

See if the industry you're interested in has a local, regional or national organization that hosts networking or social events. There, you can meet people already engaged in your chosen profession and connect to career services to help newcomers to the field. These organizations are great places to start building your networks, and many offer reduced membership rates for students.

[] Schedule an informational interview

Find someone in your chosen career and "pick their brain." Invite them for coffee, saying you know they are experts in their field and you want to learn about trends, opportunities and ideas for transitioning into their industry or sector. Remember: you are not asking for a job; you are seeking information to better prepare yourself to make this transition.

[] Look into experiential learning opportunities at UBalt

Further develop your knowledge, skills and abilities by participating in research and project-based learning; community and civic engagement activities; or internships, global field experiences and work-study positions.

[] Connect with faculty and alumni

As a UBalt student, you are part of a strong—and large—network. Our faculty and alumni work in their fields and already have industry knowledge and connections. They know firsthand the impact of a UB education, and they've made the transition from college to the workplace. Developing connections with them will afford you greater insight into possible careers and help you continue to network long after graduation.

[] Utilize LinkedIn

The CIC encourages all students who have not created a LinkedIn profile to do so, as it remains one of the best ways to network virtually. We recommend meeting with your career coach to get assistance in filling out your profile and to schedule a time to get a professional headshot taken for your LinkedIn.

[] Get involved on campus and in the community

Grow your skills and develop relationships in whatever ways you can. Employers want candidates who get involved outside of what is required academically and who demonstrate their leadership. Here are some ideas to get you started:

- Student organizations: Develop and grow your skills that can be directly transferable to the workplace while meeting new people and creating long-lasting relationships—a key skill for networking. As you dedicate more time and effort, you may consider taking on leadership roles within the organization. Learn more by logging into Bee Involved through your UBalt student portal or by going to ubalt.edu/csei.
- Volunteer: Give back to your community and put your passion for a specific cause to work. Turning your dedication into a profession is a surefire way to find work that is meaningful—and to make a difference in Baltimore and beyond. Learn more at ubalt.edu/bemore.
- Lectures and seminars: Gain knowledge and perspective when you attend some of the many lectures, workshops and seminars that happen throughout the year on campus. Learn what's happening on campus through the Daily Digest, an email sent to the UBalt community each weekday during the academic year, or by visiting ubalt.edu/calendar

[] Find a mentor

Having someone more experienced than you to support you on your career path is invaluable. Most successful people, when asked how they made it, refer to people who mentored them. Consider connecting with someone in your network with whom you have a strong relationship, or who has provided you with great insights and support in the past and see if they'd be willing to serve as a mentor for you. You can even consider exploring outside of your immediate network and engaging with someone you did an informational with; they may be able to mentor you or connect you with another professional who would be a good mentor for you.
